

How Can Your BALCONY BLOOM?

FIND OUT!

Go TO WWW.TORONTOBALCONIESBLOOM.CA

Spring is here, and Toronto Balconies Bloom has created a website to make it easy for you to bring your balcony garden to life.

The website features:

- Helpful (local!) gardening resources for the novice or seasoned gardener
- Inspirational pictures and stories to help you create a personal urban oasis and grow your own vegetables
- Information on becoming a Group Demonstration Project this summer
- Notice about incentives and what's available in stores
- Referral to free gardening expertise -- gather together friends and neighbours and get personal assistance for your group
- A hub for Toronto balcony gardening enthusiasts

Your balcony can be developed in amazing ways! Get together with friends and neighbours and get planting! It's fun, safe and affordable!

Note: Joyful gardening on balconies requires individuals to do so safely, considerately and lawfully. Relevant guidelines are set out in lease and condominium agreements, and resident handbooks (where these exist). Building managers can provide helpful information.
